JOURNALISM DEPARTMENT ADVISING CHECKLIST

Review DegreeWorks before your advising session. Print this checklist and bring it to your advising session. If you attended a group advising session and are comfortable with DegreeWorks, you do not have to make an individual advising appointment.

REGISTRATION DATE/TIME: ___________________ (http://registrar.ua.edu/registration/)

APPOINTMENT DATE/TIME: _______________ MY CWID: _______________

ADVISER: ___________________ ADVISER E-MAIL: ___________________

TO-DO CHECKLIST

☐ Confirm that your DegreeWorks information is correct (i.e. journalism major; dual major or minor, if declared; correct catalog year; transfer credits; etc.).

☐ All JN majors must have a minor or dual major. Consider options on DegreeWorks using the “What if” function. To look at a second major, run a JN major “what if” and then run a second major “what if.” Dual majors in Arts and Sciences are encouraged (e.g., history, political science, psychology, art, sociology, any foreign language, English). Keeping JN as your first major will allow us to certify your UA core requirements and keep you eligible for JN department scholarships.

☐ Check for unmet core requirements, a priority especially for upper division students.

☐ Review course options and pay attention to prerequisites.

☐ Draft course selections/alternates in DegreeWorks planner and on worksheet below.

☐ If you are a transfer student, be aware of the department’s two-year plan for majors.

☐ If you cannot keep your advising appointment, let your adviser know via email.

COURSE SELECTIONS

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

COURSE ALTERNATES

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________